Semi-Custom Farmhouses

The Belwood Homes community built and constructed by Urbana Homes will be one of the most cutting-edge for sale real estate projects to hit the market this year in Lakewood, Co. These high-end, semi-custom homes will offer consumers large open floor plans, serene living, large private lots, and the enjoyment of meticulous attention to detail throughout the homes. Purchasers will be able to work with our team on finish selection, floorplans, and more. These homes are located just south of the Belmar Shopping Center at 8215 W Tennessee Ct.

The opportunity to own your dream home is available at the Belwood Homes community. With six individual, unique lots, with a variety of styles and floorplans, you'll be sure to find something that aligns with your needs. Your dream home awaits at the Belwood Homes community.

The cutting edge design curated by our in-house design team, Hauss Modern Showroom is one of the many reasons why the Belwood community will stand out from the rest. Attention to detail is one of the most important aspects of constructing new homes.
